

NEW YEAR'S EVE! Here it is with us once again. The 365 days go with such astounding rapidity that one can scarcely realize it. New Year's Eve has come to be quite the day for entertaining, as anything and everything goes. Masquerade parties seem to be quite the thing, but of course, there are always some who cling to the more formal affairs. The parties for the school set will take up the early part of the day, among which will be a dance, to be given at the Roosevelt by Miss Anna Hamill Faries, of 297 Walnut street, to meet her niece and nephew, Miss Marie Louise Weightsman Faries, Miss Emma Jeanette Faries and William Weightsman Faries, the children of her brother, Mr. Randolph Faries. The receiving party will include Mrs. Jones Wister, Mrs. James F. Whentock, Mrs. Warren Powers Laird, Mrs. Daniel McClintock Hamill, Mrs. S. Naudin Duer, Mrs. Edgar Dudley Faries, Miss Josephine H. McClure and Miss Maria Donnell Dickey.

Miss Margaret A. Dallett, the daughter of Judge and Mrs. Morris Dallett, of 256 South 5th street, will give a dance this afternoon. The guests will be from the school set, and will number 50.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ashton Little, of Glen Eagle, Sharon Hill, will give a dance and supper for their children, Miss Mary S. Little, Miss Anna D. Little and James H. Little, this evening at their home.
